

September is National Coupon Month. Many of your parents probably use coupons when they go shopping. Create some of your own coupons to give family members. An example would be: “This coupon entitles you to one foot massage.” Be creative and think of ways you could help out your family.